What are you thankful for this year?

Annie and Snowball love Thanksgiving because it reminds them of all the things they are thankful for, like friends and family. Can you draw a picture of all things you're thankful for this year?

It's Time for Snow!

It's snowing outside! Can you see the snowflakes? They all come in different shapes and forms!

Directions: Use the picture below to create your own snowflakes! Color in the snowflakes and ask an adult to cut them out. Hang them from a string or paste them on a paper for your very own winter wonderland!
